The World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts represents ten million girls and young women in 150 countries around the world. WAGGGS is the only global movement for every girl and any girl that believes each girl deserves to be the best she can be.

In December, 100 young women from 42 countries attended the Juliette Low Leadership Seminar (JLL) in Kampala, Uganda. This year, those women will train more women at JLL Seminars around the world, including one to be held at the Edith Macy Conference Center in New York. Imagine the roles these women will play in developing policies and programs to improve the lives of all girls and women!

In addition to JLL Seminars, your donation to the World Foundation for Girl Guides and Girl Scouts, Inc. provides grants to support programs such as Dove's Free Being Me, dealing with body confidence issues, and Stop the Violence, a campaign focused on the prevention and elimination of violence against girls and women.

Donations from friends like you allow the World Foundation for Girl Guides and Girl Scouts, Inc., a not-for-profit 501 (c) (3) organization, to grant monies so that girls and young women can participate in leadership development and cultural sharing in a global setting. Your donation to further this mission may be made in the following ways:
